B. Practise your grammar

1. The work environment

- Look at the table and match each profession with the corresponding job characteristics.
- Make sentences as in the example:
An actor has to / must work in the arts.

PROFESSION	JOB CHARACTERISTICS	PROFESSION
author	in the arts with people in an office	librarian
banker	in science	mathematician
farmer	good with words outdoors	sailor
actor	good with figures	musician

carpenter		builder

2. The ideal profile

- Now choose a profession but don't tell your partner its name. Tell him the necessary qualities: he must guess what it is.

Example:

A: The ideal candidate must be fond of children. He has to be hardworking and good at maths. He needs to like working with people. He works in a classroom.
B: A maths teacher!

- Go to your workbook for more activities.

C. Action 1

- Choose a profession and decide what the necessary qualities are.
- Describe it to your partner.
- Write your job offer (go to your workbook for help).
- Illustrate it with a picture, a logo or a slogan.
